OLD REDACTION TEXTS FOR THE FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Abstract:

This paper discusses sermons for the First Sunday of Lent in medieval Bulgarian literature – original and translated. The focus is on those that belong to Old Redaction compilations and particularly to Beneficial Sermon for the Sunday of Orthodoxy in the Germanov Sbornik, a Middle Bulgarian manuscript of the 14th century. In addition, the question of St Kliment of Ohrid's authorship of another sermon for the First Sunday of Lent is approached.
